DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 42 is objected to because of the following informalities: In line 9 the limitation "when the fastening device" should be changed to – wherein the fastening device --. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 38 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claim 38 recites the limitation "the lock element" in line 17. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 42-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rieden et al. 5,492,260.

Rieden teaches a garment support assembly comprising a lining section 16, a clothing hook 40, a fastening device 50, 84, 86, an opening 82, a first connector 80, and a screen 88 which is snap fitted into the fastening device. As to the limitations set forth in claims 43-47, all of the parts of Rieden are put together integrally to form a one-piece device. In other words, the parts of the device of Rieden when put together and installed are not intended to be removed or separated. The device is therefore integral and formed (put together) to form a one-piece device.

7. Claim 47 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fischer et al. 5,507,423.

Fischer teaches a cloths hook assembly comprising a lining section 3, a clothing hook 32, a fastening device 20, a vehicle wall 1, and a base plate 21. As to the limitation set forth in line 9 "integrally formed", all of the parts are put together integrally.

8. Claims 48 and 49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Von Alman 6,095,469.

Von Alman teaches a unitarily molded piece 24 comprising a clothing hook element 46 and a fastening device 32, 34, which meets the only claimed method step set forth in lines 13-14 of claim 48 and lines 11-12 of claim 49.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 4-6, 9-30 and 40-41 are allowed.

10. Claim 38 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 42-49 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 3727

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
